I. Hébergement

Nous vous recommandons les hôtels et guest-houses repris dans la liste ci-dessous. Certains d'entre eux sont situés à proximité de l'université où aura lieu le Colloque. Nous avons prévu un service de transport gracieusement offert par l'Université du Botswana pour chercher et déposer les congressistes qui seront logés loin de l'université. Prière de noter que les tarifs sont susceptibles d'augmenter de 10 à 20% en 2008.

II. Excursions

Pour l'excursion qui aura lieu le samedi 5 juillet 2008, nous proposons deux options :

- Option A : La réserve naturelle de Mokolodi

Cette réserve privée de 300 hectares est située à 12 km au sud-ouest de Gaborone. Elle abrite diverses espèces d'antilopes, deux rhinocéros blancs, des babouins, phacochères, giraffes, zèbres, guépards, éléphants et des reduncas de montagne.

Départ: samedi 5 juillet à 9 heures.

Retour sur Gaborone à 15 heures après le déjeuner qui sera pris dans le restaurant exotique de Mokolodi.

(Les Frais de participation seront fixés ultérieurement)

- Option B : Le musée Khama III à Serowe

Serowe est un "village" d'environ 100000 habitants et la capitale du district du centre qui héberge le clan Ngwato. Il est situé à 310 km de Gaborone. C'est le berceau de la famille royale Khama. On peut y découvrir :

i. Le Musée Khama III dédié à l'histoire de la famille Khama aux 19e et 20e siècles et donc à l'histoire de Serowe.

ii. Le Cimetière Royal situé au sommet de la colline de Thathaganyana.

iii. Le Khama Rhino Sanctuary situé à 20 km de Serowe. Ce sanctuaire a été ouvert en 1992 pour sauver les six derniers rhinocéros blancs qui étaient menacés d'extinction. Le nombre de ces derniers s'élève aujourd'hui à plus de trente.

iv. Les livres et articles de Bessie Head sont catalogués dans ce Musée.

Départ : samedi 6 juillet 2008 à 7 heures du matin.

Retour sur Gaborone le même jour à 19h 30.

(Les Frais de participation seront fixés ultérieurement)
