MESSAGES OF GOODWILL

THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF BOTSWANA ADVOCATE DUMA GIDEON BOKO

I am pleased to congratulate the University of Botswana's Graduating Class of 2026 as you join the ranks of the University's alumni. Your graduation coincides with Botswana's celebration of the 60th anniversary of independence. Botswana have continued to rise, adapt and move forward through resilience, determination and unity.

As you graduate during the University's 44th Graduation Ceremony under the theme, "Building High-Performance Economies: From Excellence to Global Impact", you are called upon to carry this same spirit into a rapidly changing world.

Botswana of the future will require and demand of you to be innovative and disciplined in order to transform challenges into opportunities. In a world shaped by technology, knowledge and competition, we must build an economy that is productive and globally competitive. The Graduating Class of 2026 is central to that endeavour. Let your knowledge and skills find expression in the solutions you create, the enterprises you build and the communities you uplift. Be bold enough to imagine a prosperous future, and resilient enough to withstand setbacks. The future will not always present easy paths. There will be obstacles and moments of uncertainty, but you must have the courage to rise and continue the Journey.

As you leave the University of Botswana, remember that excellence is a commitment. Let your achievements contribute to building a high-performance Botswana with meaningful global impact.

On behalf of the Government and people of the Republic of Botswana, I commend you on this milestone and wish you every success.

Congratulations, Class of 2026! The future is in your hands.

THE MINISTER OF HIGHER EDUCATION
HONOURABLE PRINCE MAELE

It gives me immense pleasure to congratulate the University of Botswana and, most importantly, the Class of 2026 on this important achievement.

This graduation takes place in a special year as Botswana celebrates 60 years of independence. It is therefore an appropriate moment to reflect on the significant role that education, knowledge and human capital have played in our nation's development, and the role they must continue to play in shaping our future.

The theme, "Building High-Performance Economies: From Local Excellence to Global Impact," captures the important responsibility of our universities to produce graduates with the knowledge, skills, creativity, and innovative capacity required to drive economic transformation.

As Botswana works towards a more diversified and knowledge-based economy, I encourage our graduates not only to seek opportunities, but also to create opportunities, solve problems and contribute to sustainable national development.

To the Class of 2026, your qualification is both an achievement and a responsibility. Pursue excellence, embrace lifelong learning, uphold integrity, and use your knowledge and talents to make a meaningful difference wherever your journey takes you.

I commend the University leadership and staff, as well as parents and guardians, for their contribution to this achievement.

Congratulations, Class of 2026. May you go forth with confidence, purpose, and a commitment to making a lasting impact on Botswana and the world.

Pula!

ACTING CHANCELLOR AND CHAIRPERSON OF THE UNIVERSITY OF BOTSWANA COUNCIL – DR DANIEL TAU

On behalf of the University Council, I wish to extend my hearty congratulations to the graduating Class of 2026. Today's ceremony represents a moment of both the celebration of achievement and reflection on the responsibility that comes with the education you have received.

You graduate at a time of profound change and deleterious socio-economic challenges. Botswana, like many parts of the global world, faces economic uncertainty, youth unemployment, technological disruptions, climate pressures and growing inequality. These emerging challenges call for unconventional solutions. Needless to mention, but rightly so, society's expectation is that higher education graduates will turn up with the required ameliorative solutions to mitigate the negative impact of the referred challenges. The University of Botswana itself is confident that you have over the years of your studies and training, gained the knowledge and competencies that will enable you to enter the labour-market with high levels of courage, imagination, innovative capability and willingness to make a difference as well as to inspire the change commensurate with the transformation ideals of Botswana and the global community. The future of Botswana in particular, will be shaped by what you do with what you have learned. We urge you to go out there and demonstrate that with you, society's return on investment from higher education is huge.

Congratulations and Goodluck!!

THE VICE CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF BOTSWANA PROFESSOR DAVID NORRIS

Today, as you graduate from the University of Botswana (UB), you do so at a defining moment in the history of our University and our country. As Botswana celebrates 60 years of independence, UB is transforming into a High-Performance Organisation (HPO), committed to excellence, innovation, agility, accountability, impact and a culture that continually challenges itself to do better.

You are, therefore, graduating into more than a changing world. You are graduating from a university that is changing with it. However, transformation is not only about what we transform. It is also about transforming the mindset of the person who executes that transformation.

We expect you to be the living expression of what a high-performance Botswana can become. Do not be spectators to change. Believe in yourselves, challenge assumptions, create opportunities and have the courage to shape the world around you.

Transformation should not be something designed somewhere else for you to implement. It must also be imagined, shaped and driven by you. The world needs graduates who can advance knowledge, build enterprises, strengthen institutions and develop solutions to challenges that transcend borders.

As you join the global village, carry the UB spirit with you. Let your work, character and impact demonstrate that transformation is not simply something we speak about but something we embody.

Go forth with purpose. Raise the standard. Create impact. Be the architects of the future and be the Botswana that the future demands.

HONORARY GRADUAND

INDIGENOUS RIGHTS ACTIVIST MR ROY SESANA

Mr Roy Sesana is an indigenous rights activist born on 17th September 1929 in Molapo in the Central Kalahari Game Reserve (CKGR). He co-founded First People of the Kalahari (FPK) with John Hardbattke in 1991 and became its chairperson in 1995, championing the rights of indigenous communities to remain on their ancestral land and preserve their traditional way of life and cultural heritage.

Mr Sesana played a leading role in challenging the relocation of CKGR communities to New Xade and Kaudwane. In 2002, his organisation took the Government of Botswana to court, resulting in a landmark 2006 High Court ruling that the evictions were unlawful and unconstitutional. His advocacy earned him the Right Livelihood Award in December 2005 for his resolute resistance to the displacement of indigenous communities and his defence of their traditional way of life.

In January 2016, Mr Sesana was employed by the Ghanzi District Council as a Community Liaison Officer and appointed chairperson of the CKGR Consultative Committee, coordinating projects and service delivery for affected communities. His work has remained central to advocating for indigenous rights, access to essential services and the preservation of cultural identity.

GUEST SPEAKER

MANAGING DIRECTOR OF LUCARA BOTSWANA
MS. NASEEM BANU LAHRI

Naseem Banu Lahri is a seasoned Executive Leader with over 18 years of transformative experience in the mining industry. Holding a Master's in Strategic Management (BCOM, FCCA), she has redefined corporate responsibility through her visionary leadership in Botswana, transcending traditional Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) models that often prioritise superficial chequebook philanthropy. Instead, Lahri has pioneered a deeply integrated approach to community upliftment, ensuring that Lucara Botswana's operations leave a lasting, sustainable legacy for mining communities.

Appointed Managing Director of Lucara Botswana in May 2018, Lahri shattered barriers as the first woman, first Motswana woman, and youngest female MD globally to lead a diamond mining company. Her tenure has been defined by a commitment to embedding social impact at the core of business strategy. Under her leadership, Lucara Botswana has moved beyond token CSR initiatives to drive tangible, systemic change. She spearheaded sustainable development projects that prioritise long-term community empowerment, including infrastructure development, clean water access, and renewable energy programs tailored to local needs.

A champion of gender equity, Lahri has revolutionised opportunities for women in Botswana's mining sector and beyond. She launched initiatives to uplift and empower women through vocational training, leadership programs, and entrepreneurship grants, directly addressing economic disparities. Her focus on education has transformed outcomes for women and children, with investments in STEM scholarships, school renovations, and digital literacy programs. Recognising the intersection of gender-based violence (GBV) and economic marginalisation, Lahri implemented workplace policies and partnerships to combat GBV, including safe reporting mechanisms, survivor support networks, and advocacy campaigns that challenge societal norms.

Lahri's board roles—including positions at the Debswana Pension Fund, Botswana Accountancy College, Pula Medical Aid, and First National Bank Botswana—reflect her dedication to governance that aligns profit with purpose. Her strategic vision earned her global acclaim: Forbes, The New Yorker, and Vogue hailed her as a trailblazer, while accolades such as the 2020 Top 100 Women in Mining, 2022 Forbes Woman Africa Impact Award, and 2023 African Mining Personality of the Year underscore her transformative impact. In 2024, she was honoured as African Female Leader of the Year and completed Harvard Business School's Senior Executive Program—Africa, further cementing her expertise in ethical leadership.

By prioritising community ownership, environmental stewardship, and gender justice, Lahri has redefined the role of a mining company in society. Her legacy in Botswana is not merely one of extracted resources, but of empowered communities, educated generations, and a blueprint for equitable growth—proving that extractive industries can be a force for enduring social good.

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

Central Tender Board (CTB) (1998 - 2002)

The Central Tender Board (CTB) was established as part of Government's efforts to centralise and manage public procurement. It provided a structured system for the consideration and award of government tenders, helping to promote fairness, accountability and value in the use of public resources.

THE NEXT CHAPTER

Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Board (PPADB) (2002 - 2022)

PPADB was established through the Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act (No. 27 of 1998) to build on the work of the CTB. It expanded the scope to cover both procurement and asset disposal, promoting efficiency, accountability and best practice in the management of public resources.

A NEW ERA

Public Procurement Regulatory Authority (PPRA) (2022 - Current)

In 2022, PPADB was transformed into the PPRA, ushering in a new chapter in the regulation and oversight of public procurement. The transformation strengthened the regulatory focus of the institution and positioned PPRA to promote a more efficient, transparent, accountable and inclusive public procurement system. PPRA regulate the public procurement sector through enforcement and compliance assessments, procurement audits, contract audits, performance audits, professionalization, contractor registration, administration sanctions, capacity building, investigations and public education.

CYBERSECURITY STARTS WITH YOU

Stay Smart. Stay Safe. Stay Secure.

In today's digitally connected world, every tap, click, and swipe matters. As digital threats become more sophisticated, staying cyber aware is not just a tech issue but a life skill. Whether you are browsing, shopping, banking, or chatting online, your personal safety starts with simple, everyday habits.

BOCRA encourages all stakeholders to take charge of their digital lives. These practical tips can help protect your information, your money, and your peace of mind. Let's build a safer cyberspace together.

USE STRONG, UNIQUE PASSWORDS, AND NEVER SHARE THEM

Avoid using your name, "123456", or "password". Use a mix of letters, numbers, and symbols. For example, instead of "Thabo2024", try "T#b0!2024".

VERIFY BEFORE YOU PAY OR DONATE

Whether it's buying on Facebook Marketplace or donating to a cause, double-check phone numbers, business names, and account details.

ENABLE TWO-FACTOR AUTHENTICATION (2FA)

Enable 2FA on all your digital accounts to add an extra layer of protection.

DON'T OVERSHARE PERSONAL INFO ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Limit what you post about your location, school, bank, or ID number. Hackers use this to impersonate or target you.

WATCH OUT FOR PYRAMID SCHEME SCAMS

Avoid clicking suspicious forwarded messages, giveaway links, or messages asking for emergency money transfers.

REPORT SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

If you suspect a scam or cybercrime, report it to the Botswana Police Service Cybercrime Unit or contact BOCRA via email to info@cirt.org.bw.

USE SECURE WI-FI CONNECTIONS

Avoid accessing sensitive information like mobile banking while connected to public or unsecured Wi-Fi (e.g., malls, taxis, or open hotspots)

KEEP YOUR PHONE AND APPS UPDATED

Always update your phone's software and apps to patch security holes. This protects you from known cyber threats.
